

Garden State Council, BSA

National Youth Leader Training Code of Conduct

The Garden State Council National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) is a youth ran and adult guided leadership experience. The participant and staff were chosen because of their high personal standards and integrity and their potential to serve as leaders within their troop. They exhibit exemplary character, have demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities and camping skills. It is expected that during this course each youth participant will adhere to their high personal standards of excellence and participate fully in this leadership experience.

NYLT course participants and their parents or guardians are asked to read this Code of Conduct as a condition of participation. These conduct standards are expected to be followed. Violations can result in immediate expulsion from the course. Each participant is responsible for his or her own behavior, and only when necessary will the procedure be invoked to send participant home from the NYLT course.

The Scout Oath and Law will be my guide throughout the NYLT Course.

I will set a good example by keeping myself neatly dressed and presentable in the proper NYLT course uniform.

I will attend all scheduled programs and participate as required in cooperation with the NYLT course staff and participants.

I will respect all participants and staff. Bullying, hazing, fighting or any action which fails to show respect for an individual has no place in Scouting. Serious and/or repetitive behavior violations can result in immediate expulsion from the NYLT course.

I will respect camp property. If I damage any camp property I will pay the Garden State Council for any loss, breakage, or vandalism of property as a result of my actions.

Violations of the Code of Conduct can result in immediate expulsion from the course without any refund of fees. If my actions result in removal from the course, I may need to reimburse my troop for any fees paid on my behalf.

I certify that I have read and agree to abide by the conditions in the Code of Conduct of the NYLT course.

(Participant Signature) _____

(Parent Signature) _____

Date: _____

This form must be signed by the participant and parent and returned within ten days of your registration to Garden State Council NYLT 693 Rancocas Road Westhampton, NJ 08060